

TSHA at a glance: 2025 Edition

Membership and Education

Our Texas-based community of speech-language pathologists, students, assistants, and audiologists delivers exceptional, life-changing care for individuals with communication-related disorders.

2,575 Members Strong

Returning members: 2,119      Total new members: 456

Our membership numbers breakdown to:

SLP	1,732	Speech-Language Pathologist-Assistant	140
Audiologist	24	Speech-Language Pathologist-Intern	27
Audiologist/SLP	9	Other/None Selected in Membership Profile	225
Student	195

Hosted 10 Webinar Wednesdays

Top 3 most popular webinars from 2025:

1. Empowering Every Voice: Evaluating and Treating Individuals with Complex Communication Needs Part 1: Using No-Tech and Low-Tech AAC
2. AI in Communication Sciences and Disorders: Clinical Work Supervision, Teaching, and Ethical Considerations
3. Pediatric Dysarthria: What's New for the SLP on the Street

Published 6 bi-monthly installments of the Communicologist newsletter

Top 3 articles from 2025:

1. Breaking Up Is Hard To Do: Dismissal from School-Based Speech Therapy
2. CLD Corner — The Unifying Power of Difference: Why Cultural and Linguistic Diversity Is Non-Negotiable in SLP and Audiology in 2025
3. Issue Brief: Medicare Benefit Policy Manual Definition Changes

Your Voice, Amplified:

TSHA supported members through legislative advocacy, including partnering with legislators to introduce the Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology Interstate Compact Act:

- House Bill 4409
- Senate Bill 1843

2,303
Attendees

40
Poster presentations

164
Exhibitors

14
Praxis bowl teams

Top 3 Highest-rated sessions

1. The Bite Sized Guide to Pediatric Acquired Brain Injury and Feeding Challenges
2. Tinnitus Management: How to Help Patients Cope with Bothersome Tinnitus
3. A Practical Guide to Best Practices in the Clinical Evaluation of the Swallowing Mechanism – Part 1

Keynote Highlights: A One-of-a-Kind Experience:

The keynote speaker, Kia N. Johnson, PhD, CCC-SLP, empowered attendees with her discussion about innovative strategies that bridge professional advocacy with clinical practice that benefits the future of audiology and speech-language pathology.